SPOOL FACTORY WILL BE STARTED

New Enterprises for Fredericksburg—Workmen Have Narrow Escape.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., July 27.—A certificate to charter a new industrial company to be established in this city was presented to the Corporation Court today by Attorney W. W. Butner. The incorporators are Edgar M. Young, of this city; W. C. Schoonover, of Waverly, and W. C. Schoonover, of Westfield, Pa. The object is to establish a planing and dressing lumber mill and spool factory here.

To-day was the last day of the school month of the Summer Normal Institute in this city, and the following three days—Thursday, Friday and Saturday—will be given over to the examinations. The total enrollment of the institute has reached 340, the largest of any former summer school held here. To-day Professor Robert Fraser, representing the Southern Board of Education, addressed the teachers at 11 o'clock on the subject, "The Teacher's Responsibility."

Goshen Baptist Sunday school convention opened today at 11 o'clock at Waller's Church, in Spotsylvania county, with Dr. R. B. Reynolds, of Westfield, Pa., as moderator, and George E. Walte, of Spotsylvania, as clerk. A large number of delegates are in attendance.

Work has been commenced on the $1500 addition to the Methodist Church in this city, to be used for Sunday school purposes. E. G. Hoffman is the contractor.

Several workmen narrowly escaped serious injury, if not death, today, while at work on the government public building in this city. A large piece of stone was being hoisted when the rope broke and it fell to the ground with great force, crushing the planer and breaking off a piece of the stone. Some of the workmen came near being caught under the stone.

The following delegates have been elected from Falmouth Baptist Church to the Hermon Baptist Association, which meets at Sparta, in Caroline county, August 3, C. Charters, F. K. Tyler and William Pollard.

MANOEUVRES AT NIGHT

Work Promises to Be Big Feature of Encampment at Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 27.—The first and second West Virginia Regiments entrained at the United States camp of instruction today for their home-ward journey.

This afternoon the regulars were out working on another battle problem, and the territory used for manoeuvring resounded with the rattle of musketry. The regulars were in the line in exercises in attack during the morning, and in the afternoon went through their final battalion drills.

All preparations for the big night manoeuvres, which will take place after sundown Thursday and Friday. The regulars and militia will all take part, and will be excused from all other duties save routine work during the day preceding the night battles. The problems being mapped out provide for engagements through the woods and fields surrounding Gettysburg, and the night work promises to be one of the big features of the present encampment. The searchlights will be used to discover the positions of the opposing armies.

UPRISINGS PREMATURE

Sympathizers of Bonilla Hope That He Will Survive Setbacks.

New Orleans, La., July 27.—Sympathizers of Manuel Bonilla in the local Central American colony will probably hope that the revolutionists in Spanish Honduras will survive the setbacks which they are meeting in their uprising on the north coast. They hinted to-night that Bonilla, who was last reported off the coast with two schooners loaded with men and arms, would make the first serious assault within the next forty-eight hours. The first uprisings in Port Cortez and Celba are declared to have been premature.

Davila, they assert, will be deserted by a large majority of the citizens as soon as Bonilla commences active operations. On the other hand, the revolutionists of the Honduran consul-general here are issuing further reports on the peace which President Davila is declared to have established. These announcements declare that the government has the country well in hand.

NORMAL SCHOOL HALL

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

More Than Two Hundred Women Students Nearly Thrown Into a Panic.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., July 27.—A shocking calamity was today visited by a near cloudburst and an unusually heavy electrical storm. During the height of the storm lightning struck the Science Hall at the State Female Normal School. The tile roof was shattered and the heavy timbers charred, but did not ignite. In the building at the time were more than 200 female students. The stroke almost created a panic, but no one was hurt, and finally studies were resumed.

Oppose Threatened Advance.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 27.—An special meeting of the Southern Appalachian Coal Operators Association, held here this afternoon, it was decided to oppose the threatened advance of 10 cents per ton, offered from this field to the Carolinas. ## HOUDON REPLICA NOW IN READINESS

Colonel Mann Will Make Speech of Presentation at Versailles.

JAILBIRD IS PARDONED

Lecost Gets Freedom for Faithfulness—Labor Men Favor Swanson.

Final arrangements have been completed for the presentation to the republic of France of the replica of the Houdon statue of George Washington, in the rotunda of the Capitol. Colonel James Mann, of Norfolk, a member of the Houdon Statue Commission, was in the city yesterday, and saw Governor Mann about the affair. The replica is now in Paris. It was shipped from New York some two weeks ago.

The members of the commission—Colonel James Mann, Senator Floyd W. King, of Clifton Forge, the author of the resolution in the Legislature, and Senator Don P. Halsey, of Lynchburg, will sail from New York on August 3 for Liverpool. The ceremonies of presentation will be held on August 18 at Versailles.

It has been determined to place the bronze cast in what is known as the Marble Hall in the Versailles Palace. This chamber is opposite the room in which the French Chamber of Deputies meets for the election of a President of the republic.

All will fairly go. The address of presentation will be made by Colonel Mann, while Senators King and Halsey are expected to have something to say. The replica will be accepted in behalf of France by M. Piehon, the minister of foreign affairs, and such other officials of the French cabinet. There will also be an address by M. Jusserand, the ambassador to the United States from the republic of France, who is now in Paris.

In the pedestal, under the plinth, will be placed a copy of the book issued yesterday by the United States on information furnished by France, containing the names of the 46,000 French soldiers and sailors who fought in the armies of the United States for independence.

It is the hope of the commission that the actual unveiling of the replica will be done by a lineal descendant of the Marquis de Lafayette, preferably a young woman. A request of this nature has been sent to the Marquis Gaston de Sahune de Lafayette, the present head of this distinguished French family.

There is an impression that France will place two busts at the base of the replica—one of Marquis de Lafayette and the other of Captain Sutfren, the French commander of the American warship Fantome. It was Sutfren who forced the Narragansett channel and destroyed ten British ships.

The commission will arrive in Paris on the afternoon of August 15. After the ceremony of presentation the members will go to Switzerland and to Italy.

WINS FREEDOM

Prisoner Who Prevented Escape Given Conditional Pardon.

Charles Lecost, a jail prisoner, who was sentenced to serve one year for larceny, was yesterday given conditional pardon by Governor Mann, on the recommendation of Superintendent James B. Wood, of the State penitentiary.

Lecost was thus rewarded because of his prevention of the escape of a fellow prisoner, who had planned to escape with him. Lecost had been in the penitentiary since he was arrested in October. The prisoner had been working on the convict road force near Middlethorpe.

INDORSE SWANSON

Labor Organizations Request His Appointment as Senator.

The Central Labor Union of Newport News, representing more than a score of labor organizations of that city, has requested Governor Mann to appoint ex-Governor Claude A. Swanson to the vacant Senate seat, to succeed Senator Daniel. Other labor bodies throughout the State are taking similar action.

This movement has now grown until it is believed that nearly all the laboring bodies, as fast as they meet, will take similar action and forward their requests to the Governor.

Governor Mann has not as yet said on what date he will issue the commission to Mr. Swanson. By tomorrow, however, he will have decided the death of Major Daniel, and it is possible that the appointment will be made before the end of the week.

COURT IS ORDERED

Trial of Sergeant Atkinson Will Be Held on August 4.

Major E. W. Bowles, president of the general court-martial which will try Sergeant Atkinson, has ordered that the trial of the fatal case in which the case in which, according to the official statement of Captain W. M. Myers, Sergeant Atkinson will probably be able to prove that his employers would not give him leave of absence to allow him to attend the camp of instruction at Gettysburg.

Lieutenant Randolph Tucker, who was appointed judge advocate, will, it is understood, not return to the city until after the trial. The trial is probable that the Adjutant-General will appoint some other officer to take his place.

Mid Ice and Snow.

Evidently with malice aforethought, Judge Prentiss, of the State Corporation Commission, who is touring Europe, has sent to his associates some cards exhibiting views of the Alps. Snow-covered mountains present themselves to the gaze of the perplexing commission force, whose imaginations lead them to depict Judge Prentiss, clad in overcoat and fur cap, trying to withstand wintry blasts in the Pass of St. Gothard.

Celebrate Free Road.

Chief Clerk Charles A. Miller, of the Department of Agriculture, on Tuesday attended a meeting of citizens at Hodges Ferry, in Norfolk county, near Portsmouth. The occasion was the celebration of the opening of the Air Line Turnpike as a free road, after a season of tolls. Among the speakers were Congressman H. B. Maynard, ex-Congressman W. A. Young, State Senator John A. Lesner, Mayor J. Davis Reed, of Portsmouth, Sheriff A. C. Cromwell, of Norfolk county, and James V. Trehy, of Norfolk.

HARD WORK SAVED OTHER PROPERTY

Fire Threatened to Destroy Terminal Hotel at West Point.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] West Point, Va., July 27.—By 3 o'clock this morning the fire which destroyed the Beach Park Hotel and King William pier had been extinguished, and citizens drew a breath of relief, as at one time other valuable property was threatened. It was only by the hardest kind of work on the part of the volunteer fire department that the flames were prevented from spreading to the Terminal Hotel, dancing pavilion and clubhouse.

This morning breakfast was served the guests at the Terminal Hotel, and everything is moving along, as far as possible, to-day as usual, and in a few days Beach Park will doubtless settle to its accustomed festivities. Plans are not suddenly developed to give to the public to-day.

Great crowds attended the fire, and no one was hurt. The silver and some furniture were saved from the dining-room. The loss is estimated at about $40,000, with insurance amounting to about 25 per cent. of this sum.

THE NEWEST CALLING CARD

Indorsed by White Salmon, Wash., and Gives the Family Record.

New York, July 27.—A new idea in calling cards reached New York yesterday by way of White Salmon, a small town in Washington State. The card was first seen at the Hotel Astor, where it was presented by A. H. Jewett, of White Salmon. The face looks like any ordinary card, with the address in one corner. The new idea is on the back, where a brief history of the family name appears.

According to the card presented by Mr. Jewett he is the tenth son of a family of boys. The names of all the male members of the family appear on the back of his card, numbered in rotation. Edward comes first, followed by Jacob, Benjamin, James, Christopher and four others. It remains to be seen whether the new idea will be adopted here. Those who saw the card pronounced it to be a very clever idea, which could be used here to advantage, especially in fashionable circles. A baron arriving in this country, for instance, could have his pedigree engraved on the back of his card, and society women could have their family history written thereon, giving the names of their ancestors as far back as the Mayflower, which would save a lot of trouble and explanation.

The woman had become a raving maniac, and evidently had not partaken of food since leaving her home. When found she was eating decayed fruit she had picked up in the woods. She is fifty-one years old.

INDIANS MEASURE TIME BY "SNOWS"

Obstacles Met by Census Enumerators in Fairbanks District, Alaska.

IGNORANT OF AGE OR BIRTH

As a Class the People Are Indolent, Lazy and Dirty.

Washington, D. C., July 27.—"Leather Stocking" is verified and Fenimore Cooper is vindicated, and their substantiation comes, as it should, through the Census Bureau. It is from far-away Alaska, but it is official. This substantiation is found in a report from Chief Census Agent McKenzie, telling about the taking of the census in the Fairbanks district. Mr. McKenzie gives assurance that the Indians do measure time by the "snows" and "suns" and distances by "sleeps." Indeed, he asserts that they have no other standards of time or of measurement, and in relating the fact he cites an instance which throws a little light on the difficulties of enumerating the red men.

"Only the very young children, who have been educated in the government schools," he says, "have any knowledge of their ages or births, and the agents were instructed to use the age and birth months as nearly as talk and observation would seem correct. Time with them is computed on suns and snows, and distances by sleeps. Marriages, separations, births and deaths are all based upon such calculations, and we were obliged to base our information in the same way."

Other Difficulties.

That there were other difficulties in getting the facts regarding the aborigines is indicated by the following from the report:

"Many of the Indians know a sufficient number of English words to do business with a white man, but when it was determined that they were to be counted they had a faculty for closing their mouths and knowing nothing until an interpreter impressed upon them the fact that the agent came from the Great White Father at Washington."

Regarding the habits and character of the people, he says:

"As a class they are indolent, lazy and dirty, although in recent years the teachers have taught the younger generation are keeping themselves healthier by bathing. Their homes are filthy as a rule and conducive to the diseases with which the Indians are most afflicted."

Way Indians Live.

"They spend their winters in hunting and their summers in fishing. Furs secured, hides of moose and caribou, are brought to the traders and exchanged for food and clothing, but seldom for money. Out of these hides they also make moccasins, gloves, mittens and other curios, which they trade in the same way. The fish caught in the summer are dried and used for food for themselves and their dogs during the winter."

"The Indians have no knowledge of their tribal or clan names and are all-

ARRESTED AT STATION IN CHARLOTTESVILLE

Man Wanted in Tennessee on Charge of Murder Caught in Virginia Town.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., July 27.—Frank Moore, of Tennessee, from near Ash Grove, got into the tolls here late this afternoon, a few hours after his arrival on a freight train from the South. Policeman Stratton slipped the handcuffs on him while he was enquiring a watermelon at a negro stand near Union Station. The officer, who was told by J. C. Austin and his brother, who are now in Charlottesville, that they went to school with Moore, in Tennessee, and knew that Governor Patterson, of that State, had offered a reward of several hundred dollars for his arrest for the crime of murder.

On April 20 last Moore and his brother-in-law, Charles Clark, who occupied an adjoining farm in Hamilton county, became involved in a quarrel over the corner of Clark's children. Moore followed his brother-in-law to his door, shot him to death, as he pleaded for his life, and made his escape, armed with a Winchester and two revolvers.

The prisoner made no resistance, because, as he had lost his eyesight, he did not deny that he was the man wanted, and says that he will not give any trouble about a requisition. He claims that Clark was so abusive that he had to shoot him. The Austin brothers, who are now in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company, say that Moore has a criminal record in his native State, and that he has served a three-year term in the penitentiary at Nashville.

CLASSIC EVENT WON BY FAVORITE

Dudie Archdale Gets Paper Mills Stake Over Field of Fourteen Horses.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 27.—Dudie Archdale, the favorite, had comparatively little trouble in winning the $10,000 Paper Mills stake, for 2:11 class trotters, the classic event of the Kalamazoo grand circuit race meet, in which a field of fourteen horses contested this afternoon.

F. G. Jones, who drove Dudie Archdale to victory, was enthusiastically cheered at the finish, and was carried to a spot in front of the tier's stand. Another feature was the conclusion of the 2:17 pace left over from Tuesday. Snow drove Halie Lou to a victory. Every favorite to-day was returned a winner.

In the first race, the 2:21 trot, Dora won without much difficulty. The mare is a Hungarian-bred horse, owned by Louis Winans, of England, whose wife won the first race Monday.

The 2:22 pace was tame, except for the bad break made by Nathan D. which allowed Nellie Temple to win the second heat.

In the first heat of the Paper Mills Stake, Gamar worked into an advantageous position and kept it down the stretch. Dudie Archdale tried to nose Gamar out, but failed, though it was a tight finish. After this, Dudie took the necessary three straight heats.

STUDENTS MAKE TRIP IN CANOES

University of Virginia Men Cover More Than 1,100 Miles.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] St. Louis, Mo., July 27.—Fayette C. Ewing, of Kirkwood, a suburb of St. Louis, with four other students of the University of Virginia, has just completed a canoe trip to St. Louis, of more than 1,100 miles, including one of the roughest rivers in this section of the country. Their trip included four rivers, skirting seven States. Ewing is studying to be a civil engineer. His companions are William H. Baughman, of Richmond, Va.; Nelson Baughman, of Houston, Texas; and Thomas B. Merriell, of Glenwood, Va.

The first part of the trip was along the New River, a rapid and treacherous stream. The party, in two canoes, left Charlottesville June 28. The New River is the first in that section running west, others running to the Atlantic coast. The young men had many exciting experiences, including shooting the rapids in the New River, in which their lives were imperilled several times. The party paddled down the Ohio to Cairo, Ill., and there found that from Cairo to St. Louis the trip would be so rough owing to heavy rains, as to make it impracticable. They had traveled 1,080 miles in their canoes to Cairo, and came thence to St. Louis on a packet.

The distance on water, including the packet trip, was 1,315 miles, of which 1,125 was made in canoes. The rivers they rode on are the New River, Ohio, Mississippi and the Meramec. The States they passed were Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri.
